

Payment Review

Ensuring the final account on a project is agreed in a timely and professional manner is vital. We understand this requires focus from the project team at a time when members are moving on to new schemes.

We manage this process to ensure that a robust change process is followed correctly during the construction phase. We agree any changes to costs and the programme with all parties on an on-going basis.